

Rochester's Adam Turner to Receive 'Pat' Zonneville Scholarship

Adam Turner of Rochester has been selected to receive the New York State USBC's top scholarship for this season – the newly-created Priscilla 'Pat' Zonneville Memorial Scholarship. The $4,000 scholarship -- $1,000 annually, renewable for up to four years -- is named after Priscilla Zonneville, the first president of the NYS USBC and NYS Hall of Famer, who passed away on Sept. 6, 2017.

Six other scholar-athletes will be receiving scholarships from the state bowling association as a result of judging by the NYS USBC Youth Education Services committee. The NYS Youth Leaders contribute $1,000 to these scholarships.

Adam Turner of Rochester, $4,000 ($1,000 renewable annually for up to four years)

Adam attends Greece Olympia High School, where he holds a 4.0 GPA and is ranked fifth out of a class of 195. Adam has been bowling for 13 years, with a current average of 212, a high game of 300 and high series of 802. He also is fundraising chairperson for the Rochester Youth Leaders. Extra-curricular activities include: Class President, Mentor, Varsity Bowling Team, Captain for two years, Golf Team, Student Council, High Honor Roll. Community Service: Youth Leader Treasurer, Camp Good Days, Leukemia Society. Honors: Multiple Scholastic Achievement Awards, Susan B. Anthony/Frederick Douglas Scholarship, numerous bowling honors. He plans to study actuarial science.

Sarah Gerken of Brockport, $3,000 ($750 renewable annually for up to four years)

Sarah is a senior at Hilton High School, where she holds a 3.5 GPA. On the lanes, she has a 216 average with a 300 game and 769 series. Extra-curricular activities include: Secretary of the Rochester Youth Leaders, Varsity Bowling (captain for three years), Girls Softball, National Honor Society. Honors: Scholar/Athlete Award, American Chemistry Society top 10 percent over five counties, High Honor Roll, bowling awards. Sara will attend Robert Wesleyan College to study Nursing.

Robert DiGiacomo of Rye Brook, $2,000 ($500 renewable annually for up to four years)

Robert attends Blind Brook High, where he holds a 3.69 GPA. He has a 170 average in bowling, with a high game of 279 and high series of 711. He was co-founder of his high school bowling club and a Youth Leaders member. Extra-curricular activities include: Varsity Track, Varsity Football, NYS Music Assoc. Participant, Community Activities: Animal Shelter, Cat Sitter, ACE Engineering Mentors Program, The Saints Brigade, PGA Metropolitan Division. Robert placed 10th in the 2013 Italian National Examination, and 16th in the Level B Italian National Examination. He plans to study Industrial Engineering.

Jessica Forminio of Staten Island, $1,000.

Jessica attends Tottenville High School, where she holds a 4.0 GP and is ranked 117th out of 971 students. A two-year bowler, she has a 140 average with a 247 high game and 550 high series. Extra-curricular activities: SI Youth Leaders, Bowling Team, Student Council, Hip Hop Club VP, Key Club, and Girls Track. Community Service: Volunteer Bowling Coach, Catholic Youth Organization, Thanksgiving Food Drive, Coat/clothing drive, Toys for Tots. Honors: National Honor Society, Scholar Athlete Award, Nominated for National Academy of Future, Scientists and Technologists Award for Excellence, Nominated for National Youth Leadership Forum of Medicine. Jessica plans to pursue an Education degree.

Jayden Skeete Solimine of New Rochelle, $1,000.

Jayden attends Salesian High School, where he holds an 86 average and is ranked 48th out of 130 students. He has been bowling for 12 Years, with a current average of 177, high game of 279 and high series of 683. He is a Youth Leaders member. Extra-curricular activities include: Varsity Baseball, Varsity Bowling, and E-Sports Club. Community Service: Children's Ministry teacher, Soup Kitchens, Assisted Living Home Volunteer and Christian Youth Retreats. He has earned numerous academic honors. Jayden will attend Adelphia University and plans to major in Psychology.

Breanna Forrest of Athens, Pa., $1,000.

Breanna attends Athens Area High and holds a 4.0 GPA and is ranked 32nd out of 150 students. She has been bowling for 11 Years in Waverly (NY) and holds an average of 140 with a 240 high game and 732 high series. Extra-curricular activities: Drama, National Honor Society, Rho Kappa, Concert Choir, Artsfest Treasurer, and Member of Artsfest. Community Service: Adopt a Highway Girl Scout, MVP Team Artsfest. Honors: Bronze, Silver Awards from the Girl Scouts, USBC Youth Bowling 2013 William Schanbacher Youth Scholarship. Breanna plans to study Medical Imaging.

Kyle Freberg of Oswego, $1,000.

Kyle attends Oswego High and holds a 3.7 GPA, ranking 74th out of 256 students. He has been bowling for 10 years, with a 214 average, 300 high game and 718 high series. Extra-curricular activities include Varsity Bowling, which he is currently the Captain. Community Service: Altar Server. Kyle received the Youth bowler of the Year (2016) and Music Merit Award for 2016. He plans to study Biology.